Jesus told the parable in Luke 14:16-23 of the man who prepared a great banquet. He sent his servant to invite his guests. When the day for the event arrived, excuses began to pour in for why they could not come. In response, he instructed his servant to go into the city, to the streets and alleys, to bring the sick and infirmed to the party. Yet there was still room. So, he sent his servant out to the highways and hedges to compel people to come, so that "my house may be filled," he said.

A number of years ago I sat in a meeting with fellow pastors. The topic of conversation focused on evangelism efforts of our churches. One pastor remarked how churches seemed to be focusing their evangelistic efforts on a certain segment of the population and overlooking others. He said, "If I were lost, I'm afraid I would not be reached by a Baptist church. Baptist churches today seem to be focusing less on the poorer folks and focusing more on those with more money."

When those invited would not come, the master of the house swung the door open wide to include those who otherwise were not invited. Ultimately, he sent his servant to compel them to come, to coerce and to insist that they come. There was an urgency involved. It was time for the banquet to begin.

Do we drive through our community thinking we have gone into every nook and cranny, every highway and alleyway, with the gospel, inviting all who live there to "the party," only to realize there are many to whom we have not given an invitation? The master of the house could have been satisfied with the invitations and resulting excuses and simply said, "well I tried!"

He didn't; but I'm afraid we do.

There are many who are out of sight, out of mind; many who we have invited before and our invitation was rebuffed. There are others who are waiting on our urgent invitation, but they are not on our radar, simply because either we or they think they don't fit. They are in an out of the way place physically, socially or geographically. We, the servants of the Master, must urgently compel them to the banquet He is preparing.

Who are you overlooking?

As the calendar turns to September, it is a reminder that our Fall meeting approaches. The date is Monday October 21, 2019. This year we will meet with the Vardaman St. Baptist Church, Wiggins. Please remember to elect your messengers. You can include them in your ACP or you can forward their names to us on your church stationery. That way we will know who is authorized to vote.

Our speaker this year is Dr. Waylon Bailey, pastor of FBC, Covington, LA.

Finally, I want to express my appreciation to our churches for their faithful giving to Associational missions this year. Your giving reflects your cooperative spirit which enables us all to be more effective in this part of Kingdom.

I am honored beyond measure to be your AMD,

Dr. Steve

Discipling Disciples to Disciple... Children?

2020 will be The Year of Discipling Disciples to Disciple! When we talk discipleship, we tend to think youth and adults. What about our elementary kids? Some of the best and most unashamed witnesses are children. We should certainly give emphasis to beginning and improving discipling of our children.

On Thursday, October 10 at 6:30pm in the GCBA Training Center, Angie Boydstun, Sunday School and Small Groups Consultant with MBCB will share insights on the proper discipling of children. Please plan to attend and bring your children's workers in all programs to this event. If you follow Strauss and Howe's generational theory, our children (Generation Z) are our next greatest hope for the church, our nation and the world. Come learn to obey the Great Commission as it applies to discipling children.

On Saturday, March 7, 2020, GCBA and Walk Thru the Bible will present Old Testament LIVE, a cool and effective way to learn the books of the Old Testament and their major themes. The cost is 10 per person for 5th graders through senior adults. The location is FBC Long Beach from 8 AM to Noon.

Pastors! Threats to the modern church seem to come from every angle. Your GCBA has developed a new resource to help you in your role as shepherd. The Shepherd's Staff is a once-per-month lunch-time gathering which will focus on information and resources intended to help you shepherd those whom the Father has entrusted to your care. These gatherings will meet at the GCBA Training Center from 11:30a.m.–1:00p.m. Cost will be $10.00 which will include the meal.

The sessions will be led by Linda Davis, who is uniquely trained and experienced to lead on these topics. Linda Davis holds a Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.D.) degree from Mississippi College School of Law. She served as a criminal prosecutor with the Mississippi Attorney General's Office for fourteen years. During her tenure with the Attorney General's Office she served in: the Public Integrity Division, CyberCrime Unit, prosecuting crimes involving the exploitation of children; the Prosecutors' Training Division, providing legal training to law enforcement officers across the State; and the Consumer Protection Division where she prosecuted fraud cases and advocated for the public. Prior to that, she served in the Office of the Senate Chief Counsel for Employment at the United States Senate in Washington, D.C. and at the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit in Washington, D.C. Linda was baptized at Heritage Baptist Church, Biloxi, MS, in September 2013 where she is now a member. She currently maintains Heritage's prayer list, writes its weekly bulletin, leads a Bible study on Friday evenings, and makes a joyful noise in the choir.
